

U.S. Department of the Interior
Bureau of Land Management
Wild Horse and Burro Program

presents

Bryan Neubert Wild Horse Training Clinic

Friday, May 17,
Saturday, May 18,
and
Sunday, May 19, 2002

Mantle Ranch
615 South Antelope Creek Road
Wheatland, Wyoming

Bryan Neubert will give personal instruction, with round-pen work & saddling at the clinic.

10 Wild Horses under five years old will be available for adoption by competitive bid.

Friday, May 17

- 9 a.m. - Bryan Neubert will demonstrate an unstarted horse
- 10:30 a.m. - horses available for adoption will be shown
- 12:30 - lunch
- 2 p.m. - adoption bidding begins
- Evening - steak fry dinner (price to be determined) limited to 100 people

Saturday, May 18 & Sunday, May 19

- 9 a.m. - ten successful bidders will participate in the clinic

Sunday, May 19

- 1 p.m. - load out will begin

People wishing to participate should complete an adoption application in advance. Applications are available from BLM, 280 Highway 191 North, Rock Springs, Wyo. 82901. You may call 307-352-0302 to request an application or for more information. The clinic will be open to spectators, however participation is limited to the top ten bidders. Call Steve Mantle in the evening at 307-322-5799.